Forest heist: Dacoits snatch 1.2-kg gold bar

Gang robs goldsmith on Bandipur-Kerala route; flees with gold worth Rs. 1.5 crore

The car belonging to dacoity victim Vinu, which is seized by Gundlupet Town Police, as part of the investigation.

Mysuru / Gundlupet, Nov. 22 (SOMG,RK&BS)- In a major gold heist, a gang of five to six armed dacoits robbed a Kerala-based goldsmith of a 1.2-kg gold bar worth an estimated Rs. 1.5 crore between the Bandipur and Nagarahole forest stretch recently.

The victim, Vinu, a goldsmith from Calicut, was travelling in a Maruti Brezza (KL-58-V-1595), along with his friend from Kadakola in Nanjangud, towards Kerala on Nov. 20, when the gang struck at 7.30 pm near the Maddur Forest Check-post on the Bandipur-Kerala route towards Moolehole.

According to Police sources, Vinu had just purchased the gold bar from a Mandya-based goldsmith, who delivered it to him at Kadakola. As Vinu and his friend began their return trip, they noticed — only after some distance — that three cars were trailing them suspiciously.

Near Moolehole, one of the cars veered off, while the other two blocked the Brezza from behind, forcing it to halt. Before the duo could react, the dacoits overpowered them.

One of the assailants pulled Vinu's friend from the driver's seat and forced him into the back, taking control of the steering wheel himself.

The gang then drove the vehicle deep into the forest, stretching towards the Virajpet road, where they forcibly snatched the bag containing the gold bar from Vinu. The gang then fled in their vehicles, leaving the victims stranded.

Hootagalli CMC Commr. assaulted

Chandrashekar

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (BCT)- An assault on B.N. Chandrashekar, Commissioner of the Hootagalli City Municipal Council (CMC), was reported on Wednesday evening in Saraswathipuram. In his complaint to the Saraswathipuram Police, Chandrashekar alleged that personal enmity stemming from his earlier transfer triggered the attack.

He has named Madhu, now Chief Officer of the Periyapatna Town Municipal Council and formerly Revenue Officer at Hootagalli CMC, along with Sanjay Gowda and others, as the assailants.

The alleged assault occurred around 6.45 pm, when Chandrashekar had parked his car near Murugan Medicals on Vishwamanava Double Road to buy medicines. It was then that Madhu, Sanjay Gowda and another accomplice reportedly confronted him, assaulted him with a blunt object and issued death threats.

Chandrashekar stated that senior engineer Dileep, who accompanied him, intervened and prevented the situation from escalating further.

He is currently receiving treatment at K.R. Hospital.

SCRIPTURES AND DHARMA: Dharma and our nation are inseparable. The Sanskrit text Thesaurus proclaims "Sasvathosthu Dhruvo Nithya: Sanatana Dharma:" — affirming that Sanatana Dharma is eternal, unshakeable and indestructible. Scriptures such as the Ramayana, Mahabharata, and Bhagavata Purana stand as enduring pillars upholding this timeless tradition. Sri Ramanujamji explained that Ramayana presents a complete model for an ideal society. It offers a perfect king in Dasaratha, ideal mothers in his queens, an ideal son in Sri Rama, a perfect wife in Sita, ideal brothers in Lakshmana, Bharata and Satrugna, a perfect servant in Hanuman, an ideal friend in Vibhishana and even an ideal enemy in Ravana. Through these exemplary characters, the Ramayana continues to guide and inspire generations.

Srimad Bhagavatam presents the vision of a true Bhagavata (devotee) society. It depicts the pure and unwavering love that devotees express to God, illustrating how life becomes elevated when centred on devotion, surrender and divine love. In addition, the Mahabharata reflects a practical society and the complexities of human life, showing how people can change for better or worse. Duryodhana, driven by jealousy, even attempted to kill his elder brother Yudhishthira. In Vidura Neethi, Vidura advises that one should never offer counsel to a person who has not sought it. In the Yaksha Prashna, when the Yaksha asked Yudhishthira which path one should follow, he wisely replied that one must choose the path shown by the righteous elders. Through such teachings, the Mahabharata offers deep insights into human behaviour and the principles that sustain society.

The sale, which took place at the Sotheby's auction house on Thursday, has set a new record for the highest amount ever paid for a painting by a female artist.

The 1940 artwork, named El sueno or The Dream (The Bed) by Frida Kahlo was bought for 54.7 million dollars just after four minutes of bidding. The surrealist painting depicts Frida Kahlo sleeping in a bunk bed. She is wrapped in a canopy of leaves. In the overhead bunk, lies a skeleton, covered in dynamite. It symbolises her resilience during a physically and emotionally difficult time. It captures her struggles with her relationship and illness.

Karaikudi: A Coca-Cola enthusiast from Tamil Nadu is going viral for transforming his decades-long passion into a fascinating vintage museum.

Mahadevan from Karaikudi has spent years collecting Coke-themed memorabilia. The story came to light after a video of the space was shared on Instagram by creator Ramprasath Pandiarajan.

VOICE OF THE READER

How safe are our children in schools of Mysuru?

Sir,

This is with reference to the news published in Star of Mysore dated Nov. 10 about the physical assault of an 8th standard schoolboy by his fellow schoolmates in one of the prestigious schools of Mysuru.

The news comes as a shock, especially after learning about the grievous nature of the injuries sustained by the boy, which necessitated the removal of one of his testicles.

The victim was said to have been consistently harassed prior to this life-endangering assault, and despite the parents bringing these incidents to the school leadership, no solutions were provided.

Every parent of school-going children in the city has lost their peace of mind after this report. Children spend more time in school than at home and the former must offer a safe and nurturing atmosphere for them to learn, play and thrive intellectually, physically and emotionally.

Getting to know that the alleged accused were also from the same school reflects huge negligence on the part of the school leadership in handling such a sensitive issue.

It is earnestly urged that the managements of all schools in Mysuru maintain strict vigilance over day-to-day issues occurring on their campuses and never ignore even the smallest concern raised by parents regarding the safety and well-being of their wards.

Educating the Educators...

Just a week after we celebrated Children's Day, we were confronted with a brutal truth: Our children are not safe in the schools meant to nurture them.

In Delhi, a 16-year-old boy died by suicide after relentless harassment by his teachers.

In Mumbai, a 13-year-old girl collapsed and died after her teacher forced her to do 100 sit-ups with her schoolbag on as punishment.

And in Palghar, a group of terrified students fled into the jungle! Yes, into the jungle after being beaten for not fetching water on time.

What does it say about us as a society when children find wilderness safer than their classrooms?

If anything is clear, it is this: The time has come to educate the educators. Not in the subjects they teach, but in how they treat the children in their care.

In the age of Artificial Intelligence (AI), emotional intelligence of teachers matters more than ever.

Today, schools are no longer the 'temples of knowledge' they once were and teachers are no longer the high priests. Children have information on their fingertips. They swipe, tap and click their way through the digital oceans of knowledge.

Teachers cannot merely be informers anymore. Their value cannot lie solely in delivering content because technology already does that, often better and faster.

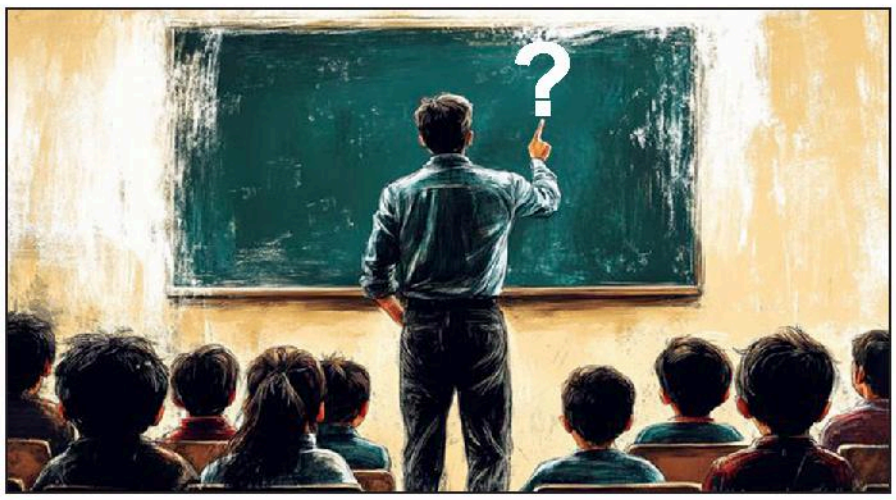
Instead, teachers must evolve into mentors, guides and emotional anchors.

AI may lighten their academic workload, but it cannot provide what children desperately need: A human being who sees them, hears them and understands them.

But teaching with empathy is easier said than done.

Today, a teacher's success is often measured only by a child's marks, rankings, exam results and homework completion. Under this relentless performance pressure, teachers become harsh, anxious and punitive.

Their frustration gets directed towards students who do not grasp a concept immediately or who appear distracted. This transforms the teacher from a figure of trust into an object of fear. And fear is the most corrosive thing in a classroom.



"In the age of Artificial Intelligence (AI), emotional intelligence of teachers matters more than ever...

Teachers cannot merely be informers anymore. Their value cannot lie solely in delivering content because technology already does that, often better and faster. Instead, teachers must evolve into mentors, guides and emotional anchors...

Today, a teacher's success is often measured only by a child's marks, rankings, exam results and homework completion. Under this relentless performance pressure, teachers become harsh, anxious and punitive...

This transforms the teacher from a figure of trust into an object of fear. And fear is the most corrosive thing in a classroom...

Fear kills curiosity and curiosity is the root of excellence, innovation and enlightenment. A classroom built on fear produces only obedience and silence, a herd of sheep rather than a generation of thinkers...

Only empathetic educators can raise empathetic citizens and we need it desperately in these toxic and polarising times."

Of course, it is difficult to remain calm and compassionate when a room full of restless children test your patience. But difficulty cannot be an excuse to turn into a fearful, authoritarian figure.

For many students, teachers are counsellors, therapists and support systems rolled into one. Children today navigate exhausting worlds. One world, which is real and filled with academic pressure; then another, a digital world filled with comparison, anxiety and overstimulation.

Children need a teacher who brings what Google, YouTube & ChatGPT cannot: Kindness.

A teacher can be stern and sternness is often necessary. But the sternness must be fair and sprinkled with kindness.

Kindness does not weaken discipline instead it strengthens trust. When children trust their teachers, they study better, behave better and grow better.

I remember a teacher of mine who would always say, "There are no stupid questions." But every time someone asked something that sounded silly, she would smile gently, pause and say, "The answer is, of course, obvious..." and then proceed to explain it patiently.

It was her way of preserving curiosity while saving the child from embarrassment. That single moment of grace can shape a child's entire confidence.

Another memory stays with me. In Saraswathipuram lived an elderly teacher, G.T. Narayana Rao (GTN).

One day, I walked past him while he was chatting with our neighbourhood Maths teacher. I stopped to greet them.

The Maths teacher looked at me and sneered, "Good morning, Jack," then told GTN with a laugh, "He's a jack of all and master of none." He said this because I had taken up and dropped several hobbies such as music, tabla and sketching.

I let out an embarrassed grin. GTN noticed. He turned to the Maths teacher and replied calmly, "Meshtre, you should know he may be a jack of all and master of none, but in life that is often better than being master of one."

In that moment, GTN protected not just me but the idea that children have self-worth. He knew that a careless remark could wound a child for years. With one gentle sentence, he restored my confidence and taught a seasoned teacher a lesson in both kindness and knowledge.

The truth is simple. Students rarely remember teachers for their scholarly brilliance. But they remember the ones who made them feel safe.

They remember the ones who removed fear from the classroom because only then can the mind truly "hold its head high," as Tagore wrote.

Fear kills curiosity and curiosity is the root of excellence, innovation and enlightenment.

A classroom built on fear produces only obedience and silence, a herd of sheep rather than a generation of thinkers.

This is why corporal punishment must not simply be discouraged but eliminated. Not on paper, not as a symbolic annual reminder, but in real, enforceable practice.

For India to become a humane and enlightened society, our schools must change. For our schools to change, our teacher training must change.

Empathy and compassion cannot be optional modules; they must be the core of teacher education. Until then, we will continue to fail our children.

The future of our society depends not on how well our children score, but on how kindly they are raised. Only empathetic educators can raise empathetic citizens and we need it desperately in these toxic and polarising times.

'Need to change farming practices for higher revenue'

Rotary Midtown presents H.S. Shivadevappa Memorial 'Adarsha Raitha' award to M.M. Kumar

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (SPN&VNS)- The present farming practices has not been yielding the desired revenue for the farmers and youngsters involved in farming are finding it tough to find a bride for themselves. Stating that the entire farming community was being honoured by felicitating progressive farmer Kumar, Darshan Puttannaiah said, it was time for changing farming system being adopted by the farmers and advised farmers to adopt mixed crop system, producing by-products from agriculture produces, animal husbandry to increase the revenue.

He also said that appropriate prices should be fixed by the authorities for naturally cultivated crops and slowly phase out the crops cultivated by using chemicals.

'Factional war a blot on Congress'

MLC A.H. Vishwanath tears into CM, Dy.CM

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (BLU&DM)- MLC A.H. Vishwanath has alleged that the ruling Congress Government in Karnataka is deeply entangled in factionalism, with rival groups backing Chief Minister (CM) Siddaramaiah and Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar locked in a contest to outwit each other. He termed the ongoing turf war a "blot on the political culture of the State."

Vishwanath

Addressing reporters at Jaladarshini Guest House this morning, Vishwanath questioned the Congress High Command's silence over the escalating power struggle between the CM and his Deputy. He said, the High Command is believed to have devised a power-sharing arrangement when the party came to power two-and-a-half years ago.

"Now, Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar is seeking his share of power under the speculated agreement. CM Siddaramaiah must honour his word and shed his arrogance," he said, adding that the Congress party had given Siddaramaiah a political 'rebirth' after he quit JD(S) two decades ago — something the CM "should not forget."

Pointing out that Shivakumar had also worked tirelessly for the Congress victory in the 2023 Assembly polls, Vishwanath reiterated that Siddaramaiah must hand over power without delay if a prior arrangement indeed exists with the High Command.

Accusing Siddaramaiah of excessive borrowing from financial institutions, he said the State's finances were in distress. Vishwanath also criticised the CM for using helicopters even for short distances, calling it an unnecessary burden on the exchequer at a time when the State is struggling to shore up depleted finances due to the implementation of the guarantee schemes.

Dacoits snatch 1.2-kg gold bar

Before escaping, the dacoits removed Vinu's car number plate in the rear and threw it inside the vehicle, presumably to delay identification. A shaken Vinu and his friend managed to drive back to the Maddur Forest Check-post and alerted the personnel on duty, who immediately relayed the information to the Gundlupet Town Police.

Circle Police Inspector (CPI) N. Jayakumar rushed to the spot and conducted a spot inspection as part of the mahazar.

Three Police teams were formed — one heading towards Kerala, another towards Mysuru, while a third team is currently analysing CCTV footage along the Bandipur route to identify the vehicles involved. Investigators are also probing the circumstances of the gold purchase.

Chamarajanagar Superintendent of Police (SP) B.T. Kavitha told Star of Mysore that the robbery appears to be the handiwork of "professionals who executed the plan after detailed preparation." She confirmed that three investigation teams are pursuing multiple angles. A case has been registered at the Gundlupet Town Police Station.

Indira Gandhi called Veer Savarkar 'nation's proud son', says writer

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (MTY&DM)- Noted columnist Praveen Kumar Mavinakadu said that former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi had praised freedom fighter Veer Savarkar, calling him "the country's proud son who cannot be forgotten."

He was speaking at a seminar on the topic 'Indira Gandhi and Savarkar,' organised by Savarkar Pratishtana, Mysuru, as part of Indira Gandhi Jayanti celebrations at a private hotel here on Thursday.

Regretting that great freedom fighters and leaders like Savarkar are being "unnecessarily and unfairly targeted" by current Congress leaders as part of vote-bank politics, Praveen Kumar said that Vinayak Damodar Savarkar continues to remain in the hearts of people as a prominent figure who fought for the country's independence.

Funds for Pratishtana

"Indira Gandhi, in a letter written in 1980 to Pandit Bakhle, the then Secretary of Swatantryaveer Savarkar Rashtriya Smarak (Savarkar Pratishtana), had highlighted Savarkar's role in the freedom struggle against the British. Calling him the proud son of the country, she personally donated Rs. 11,000 to the Pratishtana," he noted.

Savarkar Pratishtana Secretary Rakesh Bhat, in his address, said that the Supreme Court had earlier pulled up Opposition Leader Rahul Gandhi for making derogatory remarks against Savarkar, cautioning him against repeating such statements.

"However, some Congress leaders continue to make distasteful comments against Savarkar, which is highly condemnable," he said.

Speakers also criticised the recent remarks made by Minister Priyank Kharge, MLC B.K. Hariprasad and other Congress leaders were against Veer Savarkar, terming them "in poor taste."

Documentary on Savarkar

A documentary on Veer Savarkar titled 'The Life of the Great Revolutionary,' produced by the Films Division of the Government of India in 1983 under the direction of then Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, was screened at the event.

The letter written by Indira Gandhi to Savarkar Pratishtana in 1980 and the commemorative stamp released by her in honour of Veer Savarkar — featuring an image of the Cellular Jail in the Andaman Islands, where he was imprisoned by the British — were also displayed.

Earlier, floral tributes were offered to the portraits of Indira Gandhi and Veer Savarkar.

Aditya Adhikari Hospital Managing Director Dr. N. Chandrashekar, Savarkar Pratishtana Associate Secretary Shivu Chikkakanya, Mysuru Unit's S. Mahesh Kumar, Shivu Patel, D. Raghavendra, H.S. Hiriyanna, Mangala Gowramma, Savarkar Yuva Balaga's Vikram Iyengar, Sandesh Pawar and others were present during the occasion.

Yelethota land losers to get alternative lands at Chikkakatur

DC pushes for quick survey of Chikkakatur; to be completed by December

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (MTY&VNS)- Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy has directed officials to conduct a survey of Survey No. 60 at Chikkakatur village in Jayapura hobli and submit a detailed report by the end of December, to facilitate the allotment of alternative land to the Yelethota land losers.

Presiding over the District SC/ST Vigilance and Monitoring Committee meeting at Babu Jagjivan Ram Bhavan on Thursday, the DC instructed officials to complete the survey at the earliest and furnish a comprehensive report to enable the provision of alternative lands.

He also directed officials to form community hall maintenance committees at the Gram Panchayat level across various taluks. These committees will oversee the upkeep of community halls constructed under SCSP and TSP funds and submit reports to the respective Taluk Panchayat Executive Officers.

The DC further informed the meeting that construction of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Bhavan at Hanagodu village in Hunsur taluk, which had been delayed, is now underway after the State Government released Rs. 1 crore for the project.

Speaking during the meeting, Committee Member AHINDA Javarappa alleged that the District Administration had failed to satisfactorily address issues concerning SC/ST communities.

He claimed that community members were being intimidated by the Police with threats of imprisonment and said officials had not resolved grievances raised at previous meetings.

Zilla Panchayat (ZP) CEO S. Ukesh Kumar, SP N. Vishnuvardhana, MCC Commissioner Shaikh Tanveer Asif, Social Welfare Department Joint Director Range Gowda and Committee Members Ravikumar, Venugopal, Parvathamma, Mahadev and Basavaraju were present.

Keep us out of MCC: Chamundi Hill villagers

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (GA&VNS)- Residents of Chamundi Hill and Gram Panchayat members have urged Chief Minister Siddaramaiah not to bring their area under the jurisdiction of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and instead allow the Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat to continue functioning as it is.

The villagers, who met CM Siddaramaiah in Bengaluru, submitted a memorandum stating that Chamundi Hill holds a unique identity as the sacred abode of Goddess Chamundeshwari.

They noted that around 450 families, with a population of more than 3,000, live atop the Hill. Despite the Gram Panchayat efficiently managing local administration, "there are ongoing efforts to bring Chamundi Hill under MCC limits," they alleged.

They further pointed out that nearly 90 percent of the Hill's residents belong to SC/ST and Backward Classes and depend on income from small businesses. Bringing Chamundi Hill under MCC, they said, would lead to steep hikes in taxes, causing severe distress to the local community.

"Chamundi Hill village is attached to the Reserve Forest, and there is no requirement for new layout approvals or major development works. Inclusion under MCC will only jeopardise the sanctity of the Hill shrine and increase political interference," they stated.

They added that the Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat had already passed a unanimous resolution on May 12, 2022, opposing its inclusion under the proposed Greater Mysuru City Corporation limits.

The Court mandated the removal of stray dogs from schools, hospitals, railway stations and other critical public spaces, with profound implications for animal welfare across the country.

Union Minister HDK to continue as State JD(S) President

Bengaluru, Nov. 22 (KMS& DM)- The JD(S) National Executive meeting held here yesterday coinciding with the Silver Jubilee celebrations of the formation of the party, unanimously decided to continue with the Party Supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda as the National President of the party and Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) as the President of Karnataka State Unit.

Addressing press persons after the party's National Executive meeting at the party headquarters J.P. Bhavan in Bengaluru on Friday, JD(S) Legislature Party Leader in the Assembly C.B. Suresh Babu said that party Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda would continue as the National President of the party and Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy, also a former CM of Karnataka, as the State Unit President.

Pointing out that the meeting was equivocal in the continuance of HDK as the State Unit Chief, taking into account the current political scenario in the State, Suresh Babu said that the meeting also observed that the party will become more stronger under the able leadership of HDK. He further said that state JD(S) Youth Wing President Nikhil Kumaraswamy has been tasked with organising the party at the grass roots level across the State.

JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda addressing the gathering at Silver Jubilee celebrations of the party formation in Bengaluru yesterday.

Earlier, former PM H.D. Deve Gowda, who spoke after inaugurating the Silver Jubilee celebration of the JD(S), expressed the hope that the party would return to power under the able leadership of H.D. Kumaraswamy.

"Just because Kumaraswamy is a Union Minister, it does not mean that the JD(S) is getting weak in the State. Though the party may have just 19 MLAs now, no one should forget that the party was able to get 20 percent of the votes polled in the last Assembly polls. The party will work hard for bagging more seats in the next polls. The leader who pulled down the JD(S)-headed Coalition Government by facilitating the defection of Legislators a few years ago, is now in the seat of power," Deve Gowda said without taking the name of CM Siddaramaiah.

A photo expo on JD(S) was organised at the venue as part of the 2-day Silver Jubilee celebrations, which will conclude today.

I am indebted to DKS: MLA Tanveer Sait

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (DM)- Even as factionalism in the Congress has gained fresh momentum with factions supporting Chief Minister and Deputy Chief Minister making efforts to gain one upmanship, NR MLA Tanveer Sait has said, he does not belong to any camp and that he was indebted to Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar (DKS).

Tanveer Sait

Replying to a question by reporters regarding any power sharing formula in the ruling Congress, Sait said this matter is being discussed ever since Congress came to power two-and-a-half years ago. But it is not clear yet whether any power sharing formula was agreed to, he said, while clarifying that Congress High Command has asked the party Legislators and leaders not to speak about it in the open.

Reminiscing his entry to politics after the demise of his father Azeez Sait in 2002, Tanveer said, it was S.M. Krishna who gave him the Congress ticket for the by-polls that ensued.

Pointing out that D.K. Shivakumar hectically campaigned for him in the 2002 by-polls from NR Assembly segment, he said, it was DKS who consolidated his political future, for which he (Sait) was indebted to him. He reiterated that he was not for or against any leader or camp in Congress.

Echo of Blackbuck deaths in Belagavi Zoo

Mysuru Zoo on high alert

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (MTY&VNS)- Following the deaths of 31 Blackbucks at Kittur Rani Chennamma Mini Zoo in Belagavi recently, the Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) has instructed all Zoos in the State to step up biosecurity measures, heighten surveillance among others.

Minister for Forest, Ecology and Environment Eshwar Khandre also held a video conference meeting with all nine Executive Directors of various zoos and enquired about the health status of deer, sambar and blackbucks and other herbivors and carnivorous animals housed in their respective zoos and instructed them to take precautionary measures to ensure safety of the animals.

Mysuru Zoo has also initiated precautionary measures. Despite animals being healthy at the Zoo, officials have been keeping an eye on them. Measures are also in place to shift sick animals to isolation wards to avoid the spread of infection to other animals.

Officials have increased surveillance at enclosures housing blackbucks, deer and sambar. As a precautionary measure, the Zoo authorities have sprayed disinfectants to all the enclosures to ensure safety of the animals.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Mysuru Zoo Executive Director P. Anusha said, "With the sudden death of 31 blackbucks at Belagavi Mini Zoo, we have received guidelines for initiating precautionary measures according to which we have taken measures at the Mysuru Zoo."

CM and Dy.CM camps brace up for show of strength

Bengaluru, Nov. 22 (KMS& DM)- Even as speculations galore over change of leadership in the State two-and-a-half years after the Congress came to power in May, 2023, the camp followers of Chief Minister (CM) Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister (Dy.CM) D.K. Shivakumar, who is also the KPCC President, are gearing up for a show of strength.

In an interesting development, Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar paid a visit to Parappana Agrahara Jail in Bengaluru last evening and met party MLAs Veerendra (Puppy) and Vinay Kulkarni, who are in jail in connection with separate cases and is said to have sought support of the two Legislators.

On the other side, PWD Minister Satish Jarkiholi is lobbying for the continuance of Siddaramaiah as the CM for the remaining tenure, arguing that the CM, being a mass leader and hailing from a Backward Class, is capable of bringing the Congress back to power again in the next Assembly polls.

Meanwhile, AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge is said to have landed in Bengaluru last night to talk to the party leaders in a bid to resolve the leadership issue, with CM Siddaramaiah hell-bent on continuing in power and Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar, who also heads the State Congress, making all efforts to get the CM post. Kharge is scheduled to meet CM Siddaramaiah later this evening as an effort to amicably resolve the leadership row, with the lower rung party leaders expressing apprehension that the leadership tussle is affecting the party and also hurting the administration.

Mysuru, Nov. 22 (SBD&BS)- Tourism and Law Minister H.K. Patil has said, it is worth laudable that Sri Ramakrishna Ashram, Mysuru, has laid emphasis on reaching out to rural areas with its service-oriented activities, realising the thought propagated by Swami Vivekananda.

WORD OF THE DAY

Gauche

Pronunciation: GOHSH (adjective)
Meaning: Gauche describes someone or something having or showing a lack of awareness about the proper way to behave. When describing a person or a behaviour, gauche can mean "socially awkward" or "tactless"; when describing an object (such as a product with a vulgar image or slogan on it) it can mean "crudely made or done."
Origin: Although it doesn't mean anything sinister, gauche is one of several words (including sinister) with ties to old suspicions and negative associations relating to the left side and use of the left hand. In French, gauche literally means "left," and it has the extended meanings "awkward" and "clumsy." These meanings may have come about because left-handed people could appear awkward trying to manage in a mostly right-handed world, or perhaps because right-handed people appear awkward when trying to use their left hand. Regardless, awkwardness is a likely culprit. Fittingly, awkward itself comes from the Middle English awke, meaning "turned the wrong way" or "left-handed." On the other hand, adroit and dexterity have their roots in words meaning "right" or "on the right side."
Example: "Ignorance of classical music, for many people, is no longer something to be ashamed of, as it was sixty or seventy years ago. If you are indifferent to it, no one will notice; if you hate it, you may even be praised for your lack of snobbery. Almost no one will be so gauche as to tell you that you are missing out on something that could change your life." — David Denby, The New Yorker, 20 July 2025.

THE ODD WORD

Tympani

A large brass or copper drum.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Wouldn't be caught dead

Meaning: The phrase 'Wouldn't be caught dead' is used to say that you really don't like something or wouldn't want to be seen in that situation.
Origin: The 'illogic' behind this phrase is part of the appeal. As if dead people really care about likes or dislikes.
Example: "He is very conscious of his public image and wouldn't be caught dead doing anything that might batter his image."
